

Web

Tip: Looking for pictures? Try Google Images

Definitions of image data on the Web:

- Image data sources include satellite data, scanned data, and photographs. Image data sources take the form of Raster file formats and are mentioned in greater detail below.
www.adkgis.org/resources/gisdefs.html
- include Tagged Image File Format (TIFF), Joint Photographic Experts Group (JPEG), Graphic Image Format (GIF), Portable Network Graphics (PNG), and Portable Document Format (PDF).
www.state.sc.us/scdah/dollarsumm0122.htm
- A term used loosely to refer to bitmap data, or the portion of a bitmap file containing bitmap data.
www.fileformat.info/mirror/egff/glossary.htm
- Form of raster data in which features have been converted to a series of cell values. Typically satellite imagery or scanned aerial photographs.
www.slais.ubc.ca/COURSES/libr500/01-02-wt1/www/K\_Feltham/gisglossary.htm

Language Tools | Search Tips | Dissatisfied? Help us improve

Google Home - Advertising Programs - Business Solutions - About Google

©2005 Google